

Envirothon

Envirothon is a science based knowledge bowl sponsored by the Minnesota Board of Water and Soil. Students compete in a written and oral round in teams of 4-5 students. The program started in 1993 in Minnesota and continues today. Mr. Rusty Uscola was the advisor for the three years the team existed at Nevis Public School.

2002-2003

Ryan Vredenburg, Megan Rausch, Nathan Rausch, Ryan Hanson and Mr. Rusty Uscola

State participants with competition held at the Minnesota Zoo.

2003-2004

Heather Schroeder, Mr. Rusty Uscola, Anne Rittgers, Taylor Schroeder, Jennifer Stromer, and Megan Rausch

State participants with the competition held at Prairie Woods Environmental Learning Center near Spicer, Minnesota.

2004-2005

Mr. Rusty Uscola, Anne Rittgers, Taylor Schroeder, Megan Rausch, and Jennifer Stromer

State participants with the competition held at Mille Lacs Kathio State Park, near Onamia, Minnesota.

2013-2014

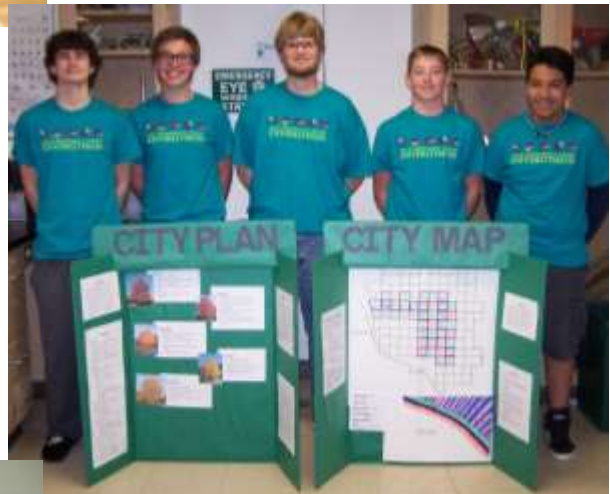

Mr. Rusty Uscola, advisor
Alexis King, Zachary Field,
Taylor Drury, Aaron Pappas,
Brandon Spain-Brist, and
McKenzie Harris

State participants with the competition held at St. John's University, Collegeville,
Minnesota.

2014-2015

Mr. Rusty Uscola, advisor
Zachary Henry, Dylon Spain-Brist,
John Merila, Casey Wold, Noah Hernandez

State Participants with the competition held at Cloquet Forestry Center, Cloquet, Minnesota

2015-2016

Mr. Rusty Uscola, advisor
Matthew McNamera, Seth Veit,
Brandon Mountjoy, Ryan Buck,
Carter Rech

State participants where the competition was held at Lake Bronson State Park in Lake Bronson, Minnesota

2015-2016

Mr. Rusty Uscola, advisor
Dylen Spain-Brist, Caden Kramer,
John Merila, Zachary Henry, Sierra
Monroe

State participants where the competition was held at Lake Bronson
State Park in Lake Bronson, Minnesota

2016-2017

Mr. Rusty Uscola, advisor
Brandon Mountjoy, Ryan
Buck, Dylen Spain-Brist,
John Merila, Caden Kramer

State Participants with competition held at Ironwood Springs in Stewertville, Minnesota

2017-2018

Mr. Rusty Uscola advisor, Matthew McNamera, Dylen Spain-Brist, John Merila, Alessandro Notari, Ethan Tauber

State Participants with the competition held at Shetek Lutheran Ministries in Slayton,
Minnesota