Mrs. Katharine Olds Horton
1929-1934

Mrs. Horton was born May 26, 1877 in Sioux Agency Township, Minnesota. Mrs. Horton graduated from Granite Falls High School and Carleton College. Mrs. Horton taught English at Nevis Public School prior to becoming the principal in the fall of 1929. She married James H. Horton in Walker, Minnesota on May 31, 1924. She served as principal of Nevis School for five years.

She also served as probate court clerk and operated the Mode Dress Shop in Granite Falls before her retirement. She passed away on February 8, 1964 in Granite Falls, Yellow Medicine County, Minnesota.

February 2, 1929	Mrs. Horton was hired at $145 per month.
February 1, 1930	Mrs. K.O. Horton rehired as principal for $145 per month.

Mr. Carl Sylvester Ingebrigtsen
1935-1935

Mr. Ingebrigtsen grew up on the prairies of North Dakota. His father was a “prairie preacher” so they moved a lot, resulting in his mother home schooling him. He passed the North Dakota State Board exams and entered Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota at the age of 15. He played football and hockey while in college. He graduated in 1929. He received his Master of Arts Degree from the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis.

Mr. Ingebrigtsen started teaching math and science in Nevis in the fall of 1929 at the age of 19. He coached girls’ basketball in the 1930s. In the fall of 1935, he accepted the position of Nevis principal. Four months later, he was offered the superintendent position for the remainder of the school year. He remained in that position for the next ten years.

While at Nevis, Mr. Ingebrigtsen helped produce the first annual in 1938. In the fall of 1936 the Nevis School mascot was the Tiger Muskies. Then, in the fall of 1937, it was changed to the Pirates. Finally, in the fall of 1938, the Nevis School mascot was changed to what it is today, the Tigers. In 1944, the first authorized dance was held at the school during the spring junior and senior banquet.

Mr. Ingebrigtsen was superintendent at Nevis during World War II. During this time, he was the only man in the school system. The pine trees that grow around the school were planted by Mr. Ingebrigtsen and the Nevis School boys as a wind break because the school was built in a wide open field.

Mr. Ingebrigtsen left Nevis in 1945 to serve as superintendent in Westbrook, Minnesota. In 1962, he went to Frazee, Minnesota where he was superintendent until he retired in 1976. During the 1960s, Mr. Ingebrigtsen was Chairman of the State High School League Board of Control. He passed away March 6, 1995 and is buried in Lakeview Cemetery, Nevis, Minnesota.

March 9, 1935 Promoted Carl Ingebrigtsen from math teacher to principal for the 1935-1936 school year at a salary of $125 per month.

December 16, 1935 Carl Ingebrigtsen was promoted to fill the position of superintendent until June 1.

Ms. Amy Geneva (Mattson) Jacobson
1936-1938

Mrs. Jacobson was born March 4, 1912 in Nome, North Dakota. She graduated from Nome High School in 1929. She then attended North Dakota Agriculture College (North Dakota State University) Fargo, North Dakota and later graduated from Moorhead State Teachers College (Minnesota State University, Moorhead, Minnesota) in 1933 with a degree in physical education and social studies. Her father was a meat cutter and they lived in Fargo, North Dakota. She attended Moorhead State for $5 per credit so the family could afford the tuition.

After graduating from Moorhead State Teacher's College, Mrs. Jacobson taught school in Pingree, North Dakota. She was paid $50 per month. Her duties included walking to school, starting the fire, and teaching grades 1-8. She accepted the position and felt fortunate to have a job as there were few jobs due to the Great Depression.

Mrs. Jacobson then accepted the history and physical education teaching position at Nevis Public School. She earned her Masters degree in administration. Mrs. Jacobson, accepted the principal position at Nevis Public School in January 1936. She resigned from Nevis School after being married to Ernest Norvall Jacobson (a 1935 Nevis Public School graduate) in 1938. She returned to teaching at Nevis School during World War II. She then left teaching entirely as she wanted to spend more time with her family. Her two children Robert (1962) and Vicki (1965) were Nevis Public School graduates. Vicki married Bruce Oberland who was also a 1965 Nevis Public School graduate.

Mrs. Jacobson died on December 8, 1985 in Nevis, Minnesota. Her interment is in Lakeview Cemetery, Nevis, Minnesota.

January 6, 1936

Miss Amy Mattson was appointed principal for the remainder of the school year after Carl Ingebrigtsen took over as superintendent.

March 5, 1938

Amy Mattson was rehired for $125 per month for the 1938-1939 school year.

Ms. Leona Larsen-Hanson
1938-1940

Ms. Larsen first started teaching in Nevis School in the fall of 1935. She had graduated from Concordia Teachers College in Moorhead, Minnesota in the spring of 1935 with a major in history and minor in English. It was during the Great Depression and only about 10% of the students got a job, she felt very fortunate.

Superintendent Reishus, who hired her, retired in the spring of 1936. At that time, he told Ms. Larsen that she was to take over his German II class. She had three years of German before so she told him she didn't know enough. But, he said not to worry as two boys would help her as they spoke German at home.

She left Nevis in the spring of 1940 when she got married and moved to California. When she returned to teach in 1945-1946, Mrs. Hanson taught world history, PE, health; basically anything that was needed as no credentials were required during the war years. In 1945-1946 there was an epidemic of head lice. The county nurse was called in and there were not many kids during that week of school. During this time she lived with her parents as her husband was overseas.

Mrs. Hanson left Nevis School in 1946 to raise her family. In 1954, she returned to teach music for half days. In 1959 she started teaching full time English where she taught six classes per day plus supervised two study halls. In 1968, she went with her husband to Grand Marais, Minnesota, as he had a job in the state park. She worked for several years in the school teaching music and English. She returned to Park Rapids in 1979 to retire. During her teaching career at Nevis School, she worked for four superintendents: S. George Reishus who initially hired her, Carl Ingebrigtsen, Herb Wolff, and Louis Schroeder.

Mrs. Hanson is currently living in Park Rapids, Minnesota.

July 2, 1938

Ms. Larsen was promoted from teaching to principal at a salary of $125 per month.

Mr. Gregor August Haseley
1940-1942

Mr. Haseley was born May 14, 1911 in Lake Elmo, Minnesota. He attended high school at St. Paul Luther Academy. After graduating, he attended St. Paul Luther Junior College for two years.

He earned his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Concordia College, Moorhead. He earned his Masters of Arts Degree from the University of Minnesota and Macalester College.

Mr. Haseley gave up playing professional baseball for the St. Paul Saints, where he was a pitcher, to become a teacher as he could make more money teaching than playing baseball.

His favorite quote was “No one is wise enough for himself, but we have to support one another, help, instruct and admonish one another” by Thomas Kempis.

Mr. Haseley started his career in education at Nevis Public School. He was hired as a teacher of PE, social studies, and business in 1938. He also coached boys’ basketball for two years. His first year of coaching, the team got new uniforms and were now called the Nevis Tigers. After two years, the school board offered him the position as principal.

Mr. Haseley left Nevis School in the spring of 1942 after a total of four years. He then went to Chisago City where he served as principal until 1947. Mr. Haseley then accepted a position at St. Paul Park where he served as teacher and principal until 1973 when he was promoted to Administrative Assistant to the Director of Secondary Education for School District 833. He served in this position for five years, until his retirement in 1978.

Mr. Haseley passed away November 20, 1986 in Washington County, Minnesota. His interment is in Lake Elmo Cemetery, Lake Elmo, Minnesota. A friend wrote about him: He is remembered by his colleagues for being sensitive to student needs and having a big heart. He strived to set an example and be an inspiration to young people so they would stay in school and achieve their dreams. He was a charter member of the St. Paul Park Lions Club. He helped get lights on the football field in St. Paul Park and started the first hockey club for St. Paul Park.

July 6, 1940

Mr. Haseley was offered the principal’s position at $115 per month and then the school board hired a teacher that could take care of the coaching to replace him.

March 23, 1942

Mr. Haseley was given $5 per month raise.

June 30, 1942

Mr. Haseley’s resignation was accepted at the school board meeting.
